CARLIE JEAN RUSSELL

Carlie Jean Russell went to her heavenly reunion on Dec. 5, 2017.

Jean, as she was known to her friends and family, was born on Feb. 10, 1932 to Hulon Ezra and Willie Opheila (Strickland) Hall.

Jean attended a one-room schoolhouse in San Miguel County, NM until she was thirteen years old. In 1945 her parents loaded up their six children and moved to Los Lunas, NM so their children could further their education.

Jean lived in Albuquerque for many years. In 1982 she and husband Russ packed up and moved to Animas Canyon in Caballo, New Mexico to retire and build their dream of a "berm" home. After Russ passed away in 2000, Jean continued to live in their rock home built in the hillside. In June of this year, she reluctantly packed up and moved back to Los Lunas to be near her family, spending the last six months of her life there.

Jean spent her free time crocheting and entertaining her grandsons, nieces and nephews in the summer. She was an amazing cook and well-known for her "cathead" biscuits. When you went to stay with her you were guaranteed to come away with a few more pounds!

She is survived by her daughter, Terrie Henderson (Sam) of Flora Vista, New Mexico, her beloved grandchildren: Jeremy (Shihong) Henderson of Quantico, Virginia, Zachary (Jessica) Henderson of Flora Vista and her step-granddaughter Laurie Henderson of Tucson, Arizona; several great-grandchildren: Zackaryah, Hunter and Aspen of Flora Vista, Daniel of Beijing, China, and Marquice and Haileigh of Tucson.
