JoAnn Phillips

JoAnn Phillips was born Aug. 21, 1938 to Genevieve and Donald “Red” Phillips of Ruidoso. She grew up in Alamogordo, NM and graduated from Alamogordo High School in 1956. She graduated from New Mexico State University in 1959 with a degree in Home Economics. After college, she worked as an Educational Consultant for the Alamogordo Public Schools. She married Paul Phillips in 1960 and together they raised two children, Lisa and David. JoAnn was an active member of the First United Methodist Church in Alamogordo where she taught Sunday School for many years. She was an excellent cook and loved to entertain and cook for her friends and family. She loved to travel and was never one to sit still for very long. She traveled all over the United States and to Europe. She was an avid reader and loved to read anything and everything. She loved her kids and grandkids very much and always made sure they were well taken care of. She always had a smile on her face and a kind word for everyone she met. She was always the first to lend a helping hand and always had a shoulder to cry on. She was loved dearly by all who knew her and will be missed greatly by everyone who knew her.

JoAnn Phillips was preceded in death by her parents, Genevieve and Donald Red Phillips, and her husband, Paul Phillips. She is survived by her children, Lisa (Phillips) Slay, and David Phillips and his wife, Jean. She is also survived by her two grandchildren, Emily Slay and Ryan Phillips.

JoAnn was a kind and gentle soul who will be deeply missed by everyone who knew her. She will be missed by many and will be remembered fondly for all her many contributions to our community.
