BUSY WEEKEND - The HSHS JROTC Color Guard and other cadets went to the elementary school, middle school, and nursing home over the Veterans Day weekend. They performed four color guards and helped pass out cookies and coffee to the Veterans at the nursing home. They walked the halls of the elementary while answering questions and letting the kids touch their uniforms. The JROTC explained what Veterans Day was and how it affects us today. At the middle school they heard from a few Veterans from the American Legion Riders and the women’s Auxiliary including Sandy Harrison, David Teeball, Jerry Garlo, Jack Hodges, John Lewis and Ginny Lucero.
